- 200 CZK per person per day including sheet/duvet
- or 1000 CZK per group (7 or more people) per day

Advantages:

- ideal location at Štramberk Castle – the 4th most beautiful tourist sight in the Czech Republic
- centrally positioned in the very heart of Štramberk
- excellent visitor facilities, competitive prices, friendly service

Surroundings:

- the 'Trúba' tower – just a few steps away
- Štramberk town square (restaurants, hotels, souvenirs, museums…) – just a stone's throw away
- bus stop (below the square) – just two stones' throws away
- Bílá Hora viewing tower – 1 km
- natural arboretum and historic quarry 'Kamenárka' – less than 1 km
- Šipka cave and Kotouč hill – 500 m
- gym – 500 m
- Libotín open-air swimming pool – 2km

… and many other beautiful sights in the fairy-tale town of Štramberk. The composer Leoš Janáček, born in nearby Hukvaldy, loved Štramberk – he said it was the prettiest town in the whole country. Known fondly as the 'Moravian Bethlehem', Štramberk is a natural gateway to the Beskydy mountains and the Lachian Gate – a region that offers a huge range of wonderful sights and experiences to visitors of all ages.
